Has Your Name Been Enrolled In Red Cross?

About 300 members have enrolled in the Red Cross in Sierra Madre during the past week, according to reports from Mayor Mitchell, chairman of the local Roll Call campaign. This is a long way from the goal of 1,000 members, but represents almost entirely the voluntary enrollments of people who have come to headquarters for the purpose.

The list of Immortals and candidates for the Hall of Fame so far enrolled is given here. Additional names will be printed next week, along with the complete list of members signed up. The beautiful lamp to be given away to the holder of the membership card with the lucky number, is on display in the Chamber of Commerce window.

TREAT PROMISED

IN LUNCH ADDRESSES

Walter C. Buckner of Pasadena, minister of the Lake Avenue Methodist Church, will be the speaker at the next Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Tuesday, November 21. George Norris is chairman for the day and says that a genuine treat is in store for those who come to hear Mr. Buckner.

PIANO PUPILS GIVE RECITAL

Four of the piano pupils of Mrs. George B. Morgridge entertained their parents with an informal recital last Saturday afternoon at her home. Each pupil gave two selections from memory, showing excellent progress in their work. Those taking part were Mary Young, Helen Wagoner, Winifred Woodward and Mary Allen. After the program light refreshments were served.

PENALTY FOR WIFE BEATING

Wife beating, whether with fists or clubs, does not meet with the approval of City Recorder C. W. Forman, who gave additional evidence of his views on the subject when he sentenced C. E. Chantry to forty days in the county jail and a fine of $125. The family disturbance arose over the payment of a bill for shoes. Chantry announced that he would appeal the case.

OWEN AND HINSHAW

BUY OUT DAIRY

Forrest Owen and E. G. Hinshaw have bought the Myrdell Dairy from A. W. Woodward and are continuing the business under the same name. Mr. Owen is employed by the Blinn Lumber Co., while Mr. Hinshaw has been with the dairy for some time past. Both are young men and energetic, and promise to maintain the dairy at a standard which will deserve substantial future growth.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEEK AT SIERRA MADRE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

VENTURE INN HAS OFFER TO GO TO GLENDALE

Mr. F. G. Linscott was in Glendale early this week to investigate a request to move the tea room that has come to be a Sierra Madre institution to that city.

In an interview with the News regarding the prospective change, Mr. Linscott said that so many people of Sierra Madre had said to him that the Venture Inn was just what the city needed, that he did not feel justified in contemplating seriously any change without making clear to the town the conditions that exist, and giving it an opportunity to express itself on the matter.

"Naturally," Mr. Linscott continued, "our interests are primarily in Sierra Madre where we live, and we have felt there are enough people here who appreciate the sort of service we have been giving to support such a venture."

"Indeed we have every reason to be grateful for the number of Sierra Madre people who have patronized the Venture Inn, some at quite infrequent intervals, and the flattering remarks they have almost invariably made."

"But it is unfortunate that the steady patronage of the few and the infrequent patronage of the many have not been sufficient to put the Inn on a paying basis. During the summer months when business increased steadily month by month, we looked to the opening of school and returning from vacations as a time when we would be established on a paying basis. But as this time came, bringing a decrease rather than an increase in business we felt that the people of Sierra Madre should know the circumstances."

"The prices we charge for the service and food we are giving require a greater volume of business than we have at the present time and we are faced with a situation where we must either increase this volume of business or move the Inn from Sierra Madre."

"Had we not heard from so many Sierra Madre people such remarks as 'Just what the town has needed,' 'I do not know what we would do without you' we would feel a little indelicate about allowing such statements to be published."

"But we have been made to feel that there is a strong sentiment in favor of having such an institution here, and we feel sure that it is only necessary that people should know the exact conditions, to supply the support necessary to keep it here. Undoubtedly also, there are many here who would be glad to take advantage of the Venture Inn if they but once overcame the inertia of taking a meal there. Between these two we still hope the Inn will have sufficient support to continue."

"Without this support, it must of necessity move to more profitable fields."

WINCHESTER CLUB HOLDS BANQUET

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Klunk and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griebenow attended the annual meeting and banquet on Tuesday at the Alexandria Hotel, given by the Winchester Club of Southern California, of which the Sierra Madre Hardware Co., is a member. The Winchester Repeating Arms Co., has recently merged with the Simmons Hardware Co., of Saint Louis, makers of Keen Kutter tools. It is now the largest merchandising concern in the world. Local dealers handling the line are known as "Winchester Stores," and the name "Winchester" is becoming as well known in tools and other hardware as it has long been in the realm of arms and ammunition.

MINSTREL SHOW COMING SOON

Tom Henderson reports that work on the Firemen's Club minstrel show is going ahead merrily. The club house has been engaged for three evenings, December 11, 12 and 13, and a lot of fine talent has been secured for the program.

America's Legion of Mercy

Today, in every city, town and village of America, the Roll Call is being made for the greatest and noblest league the world has ever known. Strong men throughout the nation, crowded with business affairs, will gladly sign their names in this league. Millions of women will join and give it their heart's devotion, regarding it as unthinkable that they should not be included in its active membership. Multitudes of bright-eyed boys and girls will be proud and eager to enroll their names and lavish their enthusiastic efforts in helping to carry out its program. Nowhere is there a noble-spirited man, woman or child among the hundred million and more who are enjoying freedom and opportunity under "Old Glory" who ought not to answer at once to the annual roll call of the American Red Cross, "Here am I; count on me!"

Victorious in every war, preeminent in wealth among all the nations of the world, illustrious for wonderful achievements in every field of invention and progress, glorious for universal liberty and all the institutions of a free and enlightened people, America has no claim to greatness so unchallengeable as its record of unselfish service to humanity, and the voluntary enrollment and participation of its millions of citizens, young and old, in that chiefest of all the world's agencies for human service, the American Red Cross.

Wherever war has set its crushing heel; wherever pestilence, famine, earthquake, flood, or other calamity has overwhelmed a nation, a city, a village, or a family; wherever any unfortunates have been broken with the storms of fate, the Red Cross comes instantly with supplies to satisfy their need, with balm to heal their wounds, with comfort to assuage their swelling grief. And the Red Cross is you, its members. You are the angels of mercy, acting through your own agency which is given life and power to serve by your membership and support. In and through this great league of tender, pitying, comforting service you become, in very truth, the minister and "servant of all."

The ministries of the Red Cross are by no means reserved for foreign lands alone. It is the one great national organization which reaches into every part of the United States with its thousands of chapters and branches, and is ready and quick to meet any emergency wherever it may occur. During the last year alone the Red Cross administered relief to more than a million persons in thirty states of the United States at its health centers, and in connection with nearly a hundred calamities of flood, tornado, fire, epidemic, accident, shipwreck, and other distress. Millions of dollars and the services of thousands of devoted workers have been ready, everywhere, at the first call of need.

One of the very greatest departments of service in which the Red Cross is engaged, and perhaps the one that comes nearest to the heart of the American people, is its comprehensive service for disabled veterans of the World War. During the past year it has spent more than $9,000,000 and used the loyal services of 50,000 volunteers in bringing comfort and care to the 30,000 disabled veterans in hospitals and in keeping their families from worry and privation. It has given advice and substantial aid to thousands of other ex-service men who are struggling to readjust their lives to post-war conditions.

It is inconceivable that any American, whether man, or woman, or child, should be silent when the great national roll-call of the Red Cross began this month. To make sure of a place in that splendid roll of honor and service is the one thing that every person in this land can do without a moment's hesitation or delay. Some who are, themselves, struggling with pinching need, will be compelled to content themselves with a one dollar "annual" membership. Few of them are reading this page. Many more will claim the dignity of "contributing" membership for which they will pay five dollars. But a keener delight will come to the many thousands who respond to the roll-call with the pledge "I will sustain this noble work," and who thus give ten dollars for a "sustaining" membership. There will be many others, and we know they form no small part of the great army of our readers, who will be proud and glad to record their names on the roll of "life" members with the gift of fifty dollars, or on the distinguished list of "Patrons," with a gift of one hundred dollars when the roll is called.

The American Red Cross receives no subsidy from the government, but is supported entirely by the money received from membership fees, voluntary contributions and legacies. Now is the time for you to give yourself as a member, and a generous contribution of money to carry on this world-wide ministry to humanity. The hearts of mothers and fathers and little children throughout all the stricken lands will bless you, and your own heart will not fail to know the joy which always comes as a reward for unselfish ministry to others.

SPEAKERS FOR

UNITY MEETINGS

Vivia Holt Menges of Hollywood and R. Walter Calloway of New York will be the speakers next Sunday morning at the Unity Truth Center meeting in the Woman's Club House. The service is held at 11 o'clock and cordial invitation is extended to hear these prominent leaders.

ARMISTICE DAY

SONG SERVICE

There was a special song service designed to commemorate Armistice Day at the Community Sing Saturday night. National songs of many of the allies in the late war were sung in addition to our own patriotic and folk songs.

There was a good attendance and all the singers, particularly the altos, were complimented by Mr. Kirchhofer on the quality and expression in their rendition of the various songs.

The chorus work has been carried on with some little difficulty due to the small number of tenors and basses coming to the sings. Surely there are more men in Sierra Madre who care and love to sing. Perhaps they are overlooking the pleasure that may be derived from this mass singing. They should make an especial effort to turn out on Saturday night and enjoy the pleasure and relaxation to be gotten from the Community Sing.

Newcomers should accept the invitation to attend the Community Sing, held every Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Woman's Club House.

COMMUNITY CLUB

MEMBERS FROLIC

The members of the Sierra Madre Community Club enjoyed an informal stag social in the parlors of the Congregational Church last evening which was pronounced one of the most enjoyable events they have had. After some preliminary announcements by the president George S. Anderson, Dennis H. Stovall, Scoutmaster, told interestingly of the work of the new Sierra Madre Scout troop, of which the club was the original sponsor. The meeting was then turned over to the entertainment committee who divided the men into two groups representing Los Angeles and San Francisco. The series of events which followed showed an appropriate spirit of rivalry in which San Francisco out-distanced Los Angeles completely. Hot dog sandwiches, pumpkin pie and coffee rounded out the evening nicely.

Program of Annual Bazaar

The annual bazaar of the Woman's Guild of Ascension Church, (Episcopal) will be held at the Woman's Club House on the afternoons and evenings of November 23 and 24. There will be the usual display of fancy and domestic articles suitable for Christmas presents. The fancy table will be presided over by Mrs. W. C. Shaw, Mrs. T. M. Webster, Mrs. G. Jaques, and Mrs. R. B. Wilson. The domestic table by Mrs. G. A. Skinner, Mrs. Slemmons, Mrs. Mark D. Welscher and Mrs. Harry Long. The candy table by Mrs. Spencer Howard, Mrs. Drake and Mrs. T. H. Flather. The white elephant table by Mrs. F. J. Hart, Mrs. McClelland. The cooked food table by Mrs. L. Deitz, Mrs. W. E. Walker and Mrs. W. H. Ingraham. The book and calendar table by Mrs. Lee Lyon and Mrs. C. D. Pease. The toy table will be in charge of Mrs. Elmer Green, assisted by the Sunday School children. The Order of St. Catherine will have a table filled with useful and attractive articles. The men of the vestry are planning a wonderful table of beautiful and indispensable gifts.

A chicken supper will be served both nights at 75 cents a plate. Mrs. Fred Griebenow, Miss Edna Green and Miss Clara Larjar will have charge of the dining room, and Miss Vannier and Miss Webster will arrange the supper.

At 8 o'clock both nights the play "Nothing But the Truth" will be given by home talent—it will be up to the usual standard of bazaar plays and the presentation reflects great credit upon Mrs. Harold Allen as director and those who take part.

Reserved seats 75 cents. General admission 50 cents. Tickets on sale at Hartman's Drug Store.

The play "Nothing But the Truth" was written by James Montgomery, and was played for weeks in New York by William Collier and made a tremendous hit, and is considered one of the most sprightly amusing and popular comedies that this country can boast. The heavy royalty demanded by the publishers makes plays of this character well worth presenting. The program follows:

Scout Troop Enjoys First Camp-Outing

Local scouts are commencing to feel the advantage of being part of the Pasadena District Council, Boy Scouts of America, for on Friday afternoon, November 17th, all the Scouts of Sierra Madre, Monrovia, Arcadia, and South Santa Anita will join troops 5, 10, 16, 20, 21, 23 and 27 of Pasadena, on the regular monthly trip to Camp Huntington, the beautiful Boy Scout Camp in Rubio Canyon. These trips will be repeated each four weeks and each troop will hold its regular meeting at the camp.

While at camp the boys will be in charge of Mr. William C. Vaughan, assistant Scout executive, of the district council, who will supervise interesting and worthwhile programs, including a camp fire program on Friday evening, and stereopticon lectures on "Scoutcraft"; and on Saturday there will be the regular camp duties, instruction and examinations in Scout tests, Scout games, etc., also special instruction in nature study and plant life, to be given by Mr. A. G. Barr, Scoutmaster of Troop No. 23, Llanada Park. While at camp the Scouts will do their own cooking under supervision, and each Scout and leader is requested to bring plenty of bedding. Mattresses will be furnished by the district council, and the Scouts will sleep in the big Rotary clubhouse.

Camp Huntington is easily reached from this district, the best route being to follow the Foothill Boulevard to Maiden Lane, Altadena, turn north on Maiden Lane, and follow Auto Club signs into camp. There is a good road all the way and ample parking space. The camp is located less than a mile from Foothill Boulevard.

Mayor Robert Mitchell,

My Dear Mr. Mitchell:

I desire to have my name placed in the Hall of Fame, and so enclose my check for five dollars in favor of the Red Cross. I only wish I could be numbered among the immortals. But my heart is there anyhow. And I wish you every success in this, the greatest humanitarian work in all the world. The Red Cross truly upholds the loving, sympathetic spirit of the Good Samaritan.

Very sincerely and faithfully,
DENNIS H. STOVALL.

DETERMINATION

Can you stand up to the work and can you be cheerful? Can you work hard and can you smile? Can you fulfill the pledge, "Cheerfulness brings courage and happiness?" Can you in any circumstance match the courageous work of the Red Cross workers engaged in relief at the California gold mine disaster

These are questions which every active Red Cross member in every chapter might ask of himself or herself, and in asking, determine that the answers shall be in the affirmative.
And that determination should be formulated now, when the smoldering fires of conflict are breaking out with renewed fury, as exemplified in the Smyrna disaster. It points the finger of direction, too, toward the approaching Roll Call campaign which, in the last analysis, is the barometer of the will to achieve by striving for the goal, "Every American everywhere a member of the Red Cross."

It is in numbers that the strength of purpose and support in the world work that lies before the American Red Cross will find its approach to efficiency and sufficiency. It is in the service pages of the records of the American Red Cross that is found the earnest of the great work required in the campaign. And in those pages are the material to convince every citizen that there can be no argument against enrolling in the Red Cross except dire poverty.

In the preliminary preparations now engrossing the chapters planning for the campaign the note of courage and cheer should be struck now and sustained throughout the industrious and insistent and consistent effort to win to the Red Cross banner the greatest support in numbers it is possible to attain. Then will the pledge be fulfilled and humanity's everready ameliorator carry its standard to the farthest ends of the earth when the call for duty comes.

Royal Breezes

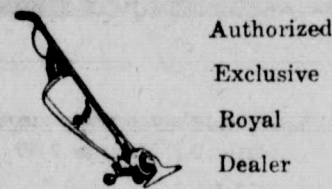

Bare Floors—the Bane of Cleaners

DID you ever know that one of the stiffest jobs for a cleaner to go up against is a bare floor, say a hardwood or linoleum floor?

The ROYAL actually shines on these floors. Concrete surfaces, in fact any uncarpeted surface is "duck soup" for the ROYAL, to use plain language. It's the only cleaner that can get ALL the dirt off of surfaces of this kind.

For this purpose you'll find a floor-brush. This fits over the nozzle, but is not a whirling affair that saps the strength of the vacuum. It simply brushes up the dust and the ROYAL'S powerful "pull" does the rest.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

By Press Chairman, Mrs. Besse Palm or Rhodes.

Monthly Luncheon and Program

A gratifying number of members and guests of the club enjoyed the splendid luncheon furnished by Mrs. M. D. Welsher and her assisting ladies on Monday, November 13, and heard the interesting talk given by Mrs. Seward Simons on "International Relations." Mrs. Simons was introduced by Mrs. W. J. Lawless, who in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, acted as mistress of ceremonies, as a woman of many titles, and surely in her various capacities of state and national service, she has shown herself to be a woman of many virtues. Her explanation of the outline of proposed national and international propaganda, in the crusade for a war-less world, was heard with thoughtful interest, and the fact borne in, that no woman can afford to confine her attention to her own fire-side, and "let the rest of the world go by." From 2 o'clock to 2:30 an informal reception was held for the new members, who have lately been received into the club. Mrs. T. H. Plather, courtesy chairman, and her committee, doing the honors. Twenty-one new names have been added to the membership list, and other applications are pending. A business meeting held from 2:30 to 3:00 was presided over by the club mother, Mrs. J. A. Osgood, after which the speakers of the afternoon, Mrs. Stewart W. French of Pasadena, gave a lecture on her trip to the Holy Land. The word pictures painted by Mrs. French, the vivid descriptions, and spiritual reflections gained through her experience as a traveler in the country teeming with Biblical history, made her lecture one of more than usual interest. Frances White, who was to have added a message in song, having been detained because of severe cold, this treat will be reserved for another date.

Dinner-Dance

Although the dinner-dance is now a thing of the past, memories of the good time attending it, have not been so relegated. While the numbers of reservations did not equal that of many like affairs given before, any lack of quantity was more than balanced by the evident show of quality. Each table was graced by one or more out of town couples, and all tables were tastefully decorated, chrysanthemums and ferns being used with beautiful effect. The dinner, which, under the special direction of Mrs. F. B. Seeley was a replica of the many good ones gone before, was served by a group of pretty high school buds, who later joined with the dinner-dancers in tripping the "light fantastic" to the splendid music furnished by Fletcher's orchestra. The affair was an entire success, both socially and financially, and adds another triumph to the social accomplishments of the Woman's Club.

Picture Show

Because of the fact that the clubhouse will be occupied on Thursday evening, November 23, that being the date of the annual bazaar of the Woman's Guild of the Episcopal Church, the picture show will be given on Wednesday evening, November 22. Many persons may not be aware that films of the very highest type are being shown at the club house each Thursday evening, and that forty per cent of the profit therefrom goes to swell the accounts of the Woman's Club, which organization is allowed to choose the kind of pictures shown and is succeeding in maintaining order throughout each performance. The same pictures which are being shown in Pasadena, Monrovia and the California theater in Los Angeles, may be seen right here in our own city. This is the first time, during the numerous efforts which have been made from time to time to maintain regular shows here that real down-to-the-minute films have been shown, and it is hoped movie goers of Sierra Madre will lend their patronage to this worthy endeavor and so assure its permanency. Prices for children have been lowered from 25 cents to 15 cents and the adult admission remains 25 cents.

An Attractive Program

Monday, November 27, holds in store a musical and intellectual treat which anyone in Sierra Madre, who so desires may avail himself of. For on this date the club will share with the community a program which is probably one of the very best the season will bring forth.

Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley, well known lecturer and musician, whose subject will be "Healing by Music," will give a most unusual program, presented in a manner virtually new to all, where beautiful music will be used to illustrate the healing theories advanced by the distinguished musician-lecturer. Dr. Gordon will be heard at 3 o'clock. Anyone, who is not a club member, may be admitted at the price of 50 cents, thus accomplishing the two-fold purpose of not only extending a privilege to non-club members, but in helping to defray the expense of this unusually high priced program.

DATE IS MADE FOR

SANTA CLAUS

Woodson Jones had a radio message from Santa Claus the other day. The old fellow was fixing up his schedule of preliminary visits in preparation for the grand swing around the circle on Christmas eve. He said he would positively appear at Mr. Jones' store on Saturday, December 9th. These annual visits are a great event for the little tots and Mr. Jones is anxious for them to keep the date in mind.

If you can't seem to realize that Christmas is near, just heed Mr. Jones' invitation to step in and take an early look at his line of Christmas cards, gift books and other holiday goods which he has on display.

BY THE WAY"THE WORLD DO MOVE"

All now agree that "the world do move." The only difference of opinion is as to the direction. One thing is certain—the world moves closer together.

Many factors have combined to eliminate time and distance in human relations. No more striking illustration can be found than one most apt to be overlooked. Improvements in highways, motor transportation and car service have eliminated boundary lines between towns and cities.

There will always be community centers, the location usually being determined by the junction or highways. But in a larger sense there are only four or five communities between the mountains and the sea—the San Gabriel Valley, the San Fernando Valley, the Redondo-Santa Monica bay district, and the lower San Gabriel Valley from Whittier to Long Beach. All these in turn are embraced in the larger community of which Los Angeles is the center.

In any one of these communities social life, organization activities and business are rapidly forgetting local limitations and boundaries. They overlap and interlace in every direction.

Local business men in any town find themselves no longer in sole possession of their field, or with only the competition of the merchant across the street. Every merchant is in competition with every other in his line within driving distance. That means that if he would keep up with the procession and share in the growth of the community, he must keep ahead in merchandising methods. He must adopt every possible method of attracting and holding business. He can't afford to overlook a single thing—attractive store fronts, window displays, interior arrangement, newspaper and other advertising, efficient service and fair prices.

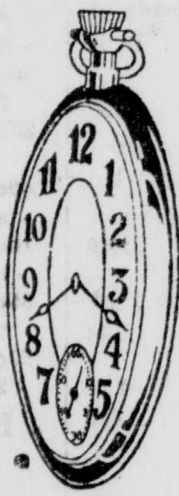

"Trade at Home" is the poorest business slogan ever invented if unsupported by sound reasons why the customer should trade at home. It is the best slogan if properly backed up by service which deserves the home trade.

Always the local man has the big advantage over the distant merchant—the personal touch. He knows his people—his people know him. If he is known as a grouch, interested only in what he can get out of the community, selfish and unsympathetic toward public enterprises, he will not get much response to his appeals for home trading. On the other hand, if to the merit of being a good merchandiser, he adds the virtue of a sympathetic friend and public spirited citizen, he will have nothing to fear in competition from anywhere.

Leaving early in the morning for San Bernardino recently, it was interesting to note the number of auto tourists along the road, breaking camp for the night, or just getting under way on the last day's journey. Looks as if every auto owner in the East was driving to California to escape the coal famine or something else. One can scarcely drive a mile without meeting a westbound car bearing an eastern number plate. All sorts of cars and camp outfits are seen. One party transported their dairy on the running board—a nice big goat in a crate. Too bad Sierra Madre has not more houses in which to shelter a larger number of the new arrivals. Moral—buy a lot and build now.

The celebrated newspaper philosopher, M. Quad, seems to have come to life, although supposed to have died a long time ago. Maybe the report of his death was slightly exaggerated. The News would certainly enjoy a call from him, if he is still in town. If he isn't here in person, maybe his ghost will see this anyway.

Jot this down in your prayer book: Lord, help me to mind mine own business at all times, and to miss no good opportunity for holding my tongue.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
 On account of fire which damaged the tent to some extent, we have given up the series of meetings in the tent, but instead have secured the Woman's Club house, and will hold forth there beginning November 26. Watch for the announcement in next week's paper. Some do not know what we teach and it was reported we were the "Holy Rollers" which is a great mistake. We are simply members of the body of Christ, the church you read of in the New Testament. Matt. 16-18. Rom. 16:16. Acts 20:28. I Cor. 1:2, 10:32, 11:22 and Heb. 12-23. We address the intellectual faculty and allow it to arouse the emotional. Sunday the 18th, will meet at 182 W. Highland. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Worship and service at 11 A. M. All are cordially invited.

visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
C. F. Stanley, of 126 E. Mira Monte, who accompanied him on Wednesday when he drove to his Imperial Valley ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley expect to return by way of San Diego.

H. J. Klemme and daughter, Miss Ruth Klemme, returned to their Sierra Madre home this week after an absence of four months. During that time they drove more than 7,000 miles.
Most of the time was spent at Silverton, Colorado, where Mr. Klemme has mining interests, and at their former home in Belmond, Iowa.

RURAL DEVELOPMENT NEW U. C. CIRCULAR

Valuable information on colonization and rural development in California is contained in Circular No. 247 just issued by the University of California Agricultural Experiment Station. The circular includes addresses delivered in a short course in land settlement given at the College of Agriculture, Berkeley, September 1921, as follows:

1—What Should Be the Next Step in Rural Development? by Elwood Mead, Professor of Rural Institutions; 2—Selecting Land for Settlement, by Charles F. Shaw, professor of Soil Technology; 3—Capital Required by California Settlers, by R. L. Adams, professor of Farm Management, and 4—Rural Planning, by J. W. Gregg, professor of Landscape Gardening and Floriculture.

Among the topics included are existing conditions in California relative to land settlement and the needs of the future; the spheres of public and private enterprise in land settlement and the importance of the three million dollar bond issue; and the necessity of putting California farm land on the market at prices which are based on its actual value, variable though they may be. Capital needs of settlers are estimated and grouped, and financial data presented from selected California farms.

The circular forms a valuable text on the subject of rural development

ARCADIA MAY HAVE BIG FORD FACTORY

It is reported that representatives of the Ford interests of Detroit, Mich. are negotiating with the Frank Meline Company for the tract of fifty-seven acres which was recently purchased by that company from Clara Baldwin Stocker for the purpose of locating a big factory which will turn out Fords and parts for the western and Asiatic trade.

The property lies just south of the army balloon school, being bounded on the north by Huntington drive, on the south by Duarte road, on the east by the Double drive and on the west by the Southern Pacific railroad. The land is the personal property of Mrs. Stocker, not part of the Baldwin ranch and therefore not subject to provisions in the Baldwin will against sale.

This is the property for which both the Goodyear Rubber Company and the William Wrigley Jr. interests have been negotiating. The Fords are declared to have secured it first and a formal announcement of the purchase is predicted in the next few days by those claiming to be familiar with the deal.

in California and will be found especially helpful to prospective settlers. A copy of Circular No. 247 may be secured by addressing the Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, Berkeley.

In The Homes of Thrifty Housewives

You'll find no trace of washday. This day, which used to be filled with so many unpleasant duties, has vanished.

Instead, the housewife's tasks have been reduced to bundling up everything that's soiled and leaving them outside the door for the laundry salesman.

A few days later, on schedule time, the bundle is returned, all flat pieces neatly ironed and folded, ready to use or put away; underwear and hosiery washed and dried; other articles of apparel that need starching, starched and dried, ready for dampening and ironing. This service is known as ROUGH DRY. The price is really surprisingly moderate, especially considering the service given. For a little additional price, all articles will be ironed and finished, ready for use.

Join the ranks of thrifty housewives by doing the family "washing" the ROUGH DRY way this week. Phone us. Our salesman will be pleased to call.

COMPETITION (The Public's Right) RESTORED

An Announcement

The Central Pacific Railway lines are to be separated from the stock ownership and operating control of the Southern Pacific Company of Kentucky, in accordance with the mandate of the United States Supreme Court of May 29, 1922. The Court's decision now goes to the United States District Court of Utah, where the details of the separation of the two properties will be formulated.

The Court's decision means the beginning of an era of active railway competition in California. This, in turn, means the opening of a period of intensive development, of growth in population and production, never before known in this State.

The Union Pacific has consistently stated that its primary interest is an independent Central Pacific for its connection at Ogden, free and untrammelled, so that it can co-operate with the Union Pacific in providing a high grade of transportation service and in aiding the development of this territory. Such co-operation will insure a transcontinental route eastward through Ogden which will provide active competition with all other transcontinental routes.

The Union Pacific henceforth purposes to develop its legitimate interests in California. It confidently relies upon the justness and fairmindedness of the citizens of this State. It asks for nothing more.

In the view of those sincerely interested in the upbuilding of California the Supreme Court's decision is a great public victory. Transportation facilities will be increased: There can be no deterioration of those facilities. The Supreme Court has safeguarded the public interest by providing that THERE WILL BE NO DISRUPTION OF EXISTING TRAFFIC ROUTES AND SERVICE.

The basis for rates into and out of California will remain unchanged. On business between the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific in California, the one-line basis for computing rates should be continued. The Union Pacific, if it should come into control of the Central Pacific, commits itself in advance to this policy.

There will be no non-essential duplication of facilities. But there will be legitimate and timely expansion of facilities to meet the ever-increasing public demand.
